

Holiday Heart Syndrome

Authored by mohammad looti

September 27, 2025

RECOMMENDED CITATION

mohammad looti (2025). Holiday Heart Syndrome. PSYCHOLOGICAL SCALES. Retrieved from <https://scales.arabpsychology.com/?p=30567>

Holiday heart syndrome is characterized by heart palpitations, heart rhythm disturbance, shortness of breath, dizziness, and being easily fatigued due to an increased alcohol consumption during the holidays. Many people drink more during weekends, parties, and other occasions. This may be dangerous as the binge drinking may lead to stroke.

ARABPSYCHOLOGY.COM